

Getting to Know Your Mortgage Banker

A Day in the Life of Carese

Carese is a second generation mortgage banker with 18 years of experience in counseling borrowers on the road to home ownership. A home is the largest investment most consumers make in their lives, so join us as Carese shares her valuable insights about this important experience. Carese will point you in the right direction and true to her word, she “knows the way home.”

1) Counseling clients through the home financing process. 2) Heading to dinner in the market with a friend/client. 3) Enjoying the Neiman Marcus Charitable Gala. 4) Enjoying a relaxing evening with friends at her downtown condo. 5) As a former U.S. National Figure Skating Silver and Bronze medalist, Carese gives back by participating in Skaters4thecure, which supports breast cancer research. She has dedicated her participation in honor of two of her girlfriends fighting this disease. 6) Taking a walk along the waterfront. 7) The Washington Athletic Club is a “second home” for Carese. Pictured with Jim Johnson, WAC CEO, and Melissa Borders, VP Club Programs, at one of her many meetings as a member of the current Board of Governors and Program Board.

A Winning Team

Independent. Local. Entrepreneurial.

190 Queen Anne Avenue North #100 | Seattle, WA 98109 | 206-568-7802
 compasspointlending.com | seattlemortgage.com