Seattle Bank Adds Bodil Stevns and Bryan Petersen to Outreach Team

SEATTLE – October 5, 2018 – Seattle Bank is pleased to announce two recent additions to its outreach team. Bodil Stevns joins the Bank as Vice President of Private Banking Outreach, and Bryan Petersen joins as Vice President of Commercial Banking Outreach.

“With the addition of Bodil and Bryan, we’re able to significantly increase our outreach efforts in areas that are important to our overall business goals,” said John Blizzard, President and CEO of Seattle Bank. “We’re excited to have them on the team and look forward to their contributions,” continued Blizzard.

Born in Denmark, Bodil Stevns has lived in the Seattle area since 1992, serving in various functions in the financial services sector including most recently as a wealth management advisor for a Fortune 100 company. Bodil earned a degree in law at University of Aarhus, Denmark, and a Master of Comparative Law degree from the University of San Diego. She is actively involved in the local Danish community.

Bryan Petersen has over 17 years’ experience in commercial and international banking services. Brian previously served as a Director at the Export Finance Assistance Center of Washington, as well as in various roles in international banking at Umpqua Bank and Wells Fargo & Co. Bryan earned a degree in Business Administration from the University of Utah.
