Seattle Bank Receives United Way Outstanding Employee Campaign Award

SEATTLE – November 8, 2016 – For the third year in a row, Seattle Bank received the United Way Outstanding Employee Campaign Award. Year over year campaign contributions increased by nearly 38%. In addition, over 18% of Seattle Bank employees made an annual giving pledge at the Leadership level ($1,000+). Throughout the past year, Seattle Bank employees have participated in a variety of fundraisers to support this great organization with a highlight being the 2nd Annual Seattle Bank Silent Auction/Happy Hour for United Way. Additionally, several of our employees dedicated a work day to United Way's Day of Caring in September 2016, and helped to organize the Downtown Emergency Service Center.

Seattle Bank has been a long-time supporter of the United Way of King County and applauds the United Way for all of the great work they do for our community. Live United!
