

Seattle Bank selects Malauzai Software for New Digital Banking Platform

Built for You

Seattle Bank is thrilled to announce the recent signing of a contract with Malauzai Software Inc., an Austin, Texas based leader in the Digital Banking arena. Through this partnership, Malauzai will provide a modern digital banking platform which will include upgrades to the Bank's online and mobile banking as well as support innovative new products & services that are in development.

A modern and elegant experience for personal and commercial business banking.

- Best-in-class mobile & online user interface
- Enhanced security features, including virtual token
- Custom account entitlements
- Improved Bill Pay, including Picture Pay
- Personal Finance Management (PFM) dashboard
- Mobile approval capabilities for ACH wires
- Card management
- Mobile deposit and remote scanner deposit